

Home to Me

By Donna Bishop

Spic and span is nice but not home to me.
Neat and tidy have come along to take their place.
No longer can you eat off the kitchen floors.

Speaking of floors and spic and span,
They were scrubbed weekly on my hands and knees.
Could that be the reason for the aches and pains?

Speaking of pains and my hands and knees,
Can't recall when everything moved with grace and ease.
That's the reason spic and span is nice but not home to me.
