

Setting the Record Straight

By Donna Bishop

There you go again, you earth-bound beings, assuming you are the center of the Cosmos. You are defining everything that is not visible on your planet or in your atmosphere as extraterrestrial. Guys, you are looking in all the wrong places for your ETs. It is a matter of perspective. From my view all seven billion of you earthlings are extraterrestrials, which incidentally I have to tell you, I for one am glad you are not occupying any other planet currently under my jurisdiction!

I suspect that was a bit harsh on my part but I do get so, so weary of watching and waiting on you all to “get it together” so to speak. Let’s start over. I’m Alycia, I am the current captain of what you might call a starship which to us means a vehicle used only for observation and data collection.

My crew overheard your interest in extraterrestrials. We did discuss inviting you to visit our ship but do sense that some of you still fear what you call alien abductions. Let me assure you our intention is to welcome you to our world, so to speak. You will feel no discomfort. We could provide a full tour of our starship and share advanced technology that will “blow your mind.” Did I get that earthly expression correct? All of you could have an opportunity to meet our crew individually and discuss their expertise on the ship and they would be glad to share information about their personal lives and their home planets to help you get a better understand of our unbelievably beautiful and peaceful Cosmos.

Earth has been under observation for eons using the latest advances in science from our perspective galaxies. We are aware of your attempts to communicate with us and we do respond in ways that you do not seem able to understand yet. Long, long ago we were told of this small planet that was born out of the vibration of Love. Our continuing data reveals, however, a large number of your inhabitants have fallen into a deep sleep that is producing nightmares of pain, strife, sickness, violence, wars, famines, and massive chaos.

Our starships are watching for this precious planet’s sleeping inhabitants to awaking to their inherent promise of peace on Earth and good will to all. Once this happens, and it will happen, the arms of the Cosmos will reach out to welcome you.

From our view up here many of you are awakening. Clusters of lights are appearing all over Earth. Live in peace with your families and neighbors. Share your good will with all you meet. You might even be smiling at an extraterrestrial here or there!
