

Never Argue with a Woman

By Hap Hansen

Many years ago, during my misguided youth, we used to sit around telling stories. Some were funny, some were clean, some were not so clean! Here's one I remember making up. It fits with our subject of today, 'What Was He Thinking?' But also why we should never argue with a woman.

A couple went on a fishing trip to a resort up north. One morning, the husband returned after several hours of fishing and decided to take a short nap. The wife decided to take the boat out. She was not familiar with the lake, so she rowed out, anchored the boat and started reading her book. Along came the Sheriff in his boat, pulled up alongside her boat and said, "Good morning, ma'am. What are you doing?" "Reading my book", she replied as she thought to herself, "Is this guy blind, or what? What is he thinking?"

He informed her, "You are in a restricted fishing area." She said, "But Officer, I'm not fishing, can't you see that?" He replied, "Well, you have all this equipment, ma'am. I'll have to take you in and write you up!"

Glaring angrily at the Sheriff, she snapped, "If you do that, I will charge you with rape!" Stammering, he said, "But, but, but, I didn't even touch you!" She replied, sarcastically, "Yes, that's true, but you have all the equipment!"

The moral of this story is: never argue with woman who knows how to read!