

Embrace The Highlights

By Hap Hansen

For those who fear life,
the darkest hour has begun.
Soon, eternal night.

For those who love life,
the end days are far away.
They embrace highlights.

There is hope for all,
those who fear and those who love.
Is it night or day?

Subways of the soul.
Deep undergrounds of mind.
Both lead to unknowns.

Explore the abstract.
Escape the ordinary.
Expect the daybreak.
