

01-01-2017

Introduction to Harry Zirkelbach's Bio

Harry, born in Freedom Pa 1922. The only son of Harry Charles and Josephine Zirkelbach. A daughter Patricia Ann followed in 1923. That family had a idealized life until the Depression at the turn of the Twentieth Century's third decade. This removed them to Erie, Pa.

Moments are captured in Harry's writings

Tea Time Readers (below)

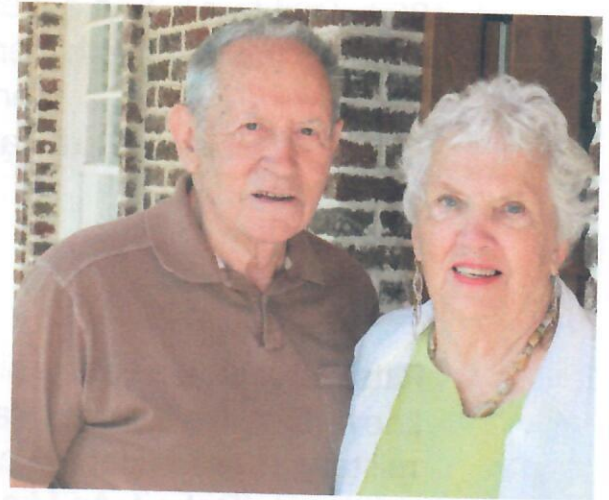

2017 Imagination 2017

Rear Mary Jane McCormick, Marilyn Reeves, "Hap" Hansen, Dianne Parker, "Pete" Clark, Chris Hirschhorn, Judy Diehm, Sara Emmoms, Molly Hegman, Dennis Knight, Kay Mauser, Harry Zirkelbach, Donna Bishop

Front ---- Shelia Johnson, Maggie Beyer, Sophy Churches, BJ Barnes, Jackie Blount, Joan Black, Irv Sternberg

When the ninth child left home, Harry and Barbara Zirkelbach began traveling these United States in the Elderhostel Program. They completed a dozen. This discontinued program offered five summer week days at College campuses. With Room and Board, students on vacation, the facilities were available, offering a wide range of Advanced Education. Some remembered in tales Harry writes: Creative Writing; the Constitution; Theater; Photography; Oceanography; Snorkeling.

“Hello. How are you?” at any meeting”, solicits a story. Everyone has them. Harry joined the WG Writers on moving here. Tell stories for the next generation and beyond, kin or not. Now to be read leisurely via WG-WG. Peruse, you may enjoy. While here surf other contributors. Windsor Gardens has 3500 readers and story tellers.

Harry Zirkelbach
Bios

Harry, born in Freedom Pa 1922. The only son of Harry Charles and Josephine Zirkelbach. A daughter Patricia Ann followed in 1923. That family had a idealized life until the Depression at the turn of the Twentieth Century's third decade. This removed them to Erie, Pa.

Moments are captured in Harry's writings.

Pittsburgh would be the big city the Zirkelbach family knew until WWII swept Harry and his sis Pat into the military in 1944, Harry Navy Ensign after graduating from the UofDetroit. As Mine Disposal Officer serving in the South Pacific, then Japan through 1946, disposing of Japanese munitions. Patricia wed a Navy man in 1944; they lived in Bremerton Washington. Remaining there until peace, Harold and Pat returned to home, never left, raised nine children.

In retirement Harry and Barbara Zirkelbach began to travel the world. They have visited every Continent. Harry writes of these adventures. The most singular travels were to Australia and Korea. Their most frequent adventures to Japan (2),Hawaii (8),England (5), Europe (6).
Tales galore created.

