

Dust Cover Blurb

by Joan Black

"Nobody writes like this!" enthused the Aurora Sentinel. "Exciting, fast-paced and hard to believe"...The Prairie Times. "Fantastic, Enthralling, a Dynamite Thriller!" says The Windsor World. "Our Mom is the Greatest" says the sons of the author. "Ms. B is one of the best, smartest, and most accomplished writers it has ever been my privilege to know!"...Unbiased opinion of J.H. Black

The latest novel of this most prolific writer exceeds all expectations, even surpassing her breathless, exciting last story "GET STUFFED" – the adventures of a Big Game Hunter, which won her The Boulder Camera Book Prize and her expose of the shenanigans behind the Window Washers Union in "PANE IN THE GLASS" was in serious contention for THE WURLITZER prize for non-fiction. In collaboration with A.A. Milne and Julia Childs, her culinary book for pre-schoolers, "COOKING WITH POOH" stayed atop the Best Seller List for two whole weeks and won her the Alan Edgar Poe mystery award.

This most recent book "ATLAS MUGGED" is hard to put down – it is also hard to pick up, being 2,500 pages of heavy reading. The plot, if there actually IS one, is difficult to follow as one has to stretch the imagination to the breaking point to understand WHY anyone would be stupid enough to actually try to MUG a huge fellow like Atlas in the first place. In order to help simplify for the intellectually challenged, the book is divided into three parts: Part 1, Part 2 and Part 3.

Part 1 deals with Contradiction, or the lack of it. Part 2 is Either/or ... or not. Take your pick. Part 3 is so complicated nobody has any idea WHAT it is about.

Master of intrigue and suspense and acknowledged lifelong expert on Gobbledygook, Ms. Black exceeds all her previous writings with this passionate tale of espionage, adventure and, of course, the obligatory sleazy sex. You want it? This book's got it. This is a MUST READ and, as the renowned and highly esteemed Book Critic for THE NATIONAL ENQUIRER summarizes ... "WOW!"

Ms. B. resides with a very attractive Italian Pool Boy and her 7th husband in the middle of an island in the middle of an ocean. She may be reached at www.biteme.whiz.
