A personality shows who you are, its effects your whole being of what you are. It can work on you emotionally. Try not to be emotional, or act on influence. If you have a husband, do not throw him out of the house because he left his dirty socks on the floor. Just pick them up, and don't divorce him. Let's talk about it to make a better marriage. If you have a child, please discipline in kindness, and train in a manner to control. Because losing in anger by screaming, and hollering, it will make you child more confused. You want him to respect you, and therefore listen to you on all matters. Be good to your neighbors, by greeting in kindness and friendship. "Love thy neighbor, as yourself". If you offend your friend, go to him or her in private conversation. If possible ask for forgiveness. If not, you will be hurting forever, and caring a grudge which shows more anger, and hatred. Do not be a gossip and talk between other people, and there affairs. You want to live longer in better health. Just remember gods word. "Love is patient, love is kind, love does not envy, love does not boast, love is not proud, love is not rude, love always trust, love always hopes, love never fails."
