

Ever Notice

by Kenita Gibbins

People of color come into acceptability circles if a tinge on the white side?

No one cares if a lesbian is lesbian unless of course she
"acts" THAT WAY?

Large breasts signify flaunting and must be held in camouflage?

If you read lips, don't dribble or park in my space, you are okay?

Life at McDonald's playground is where priorities are straight!

This little poem is my interpretation of need to compromise or just kick out prejudices.
