

Old Saying

By Kay Mauser

Mother used to say, "When Kay starts to comb her hair we will know she has noticed boys." When I began to date my father said, "Beware of what you wish for."

It did not take me long before I learned what both of them meant. I had a date to go to the movie theater. I was very careful with my preparations. I bathed, combed my hair with care, and dressed in my best.

As we were entering the movie the first showing was letting out, and a very well dressed woman passed us. She had a beautiful coiffure and was wearing a lovely smelling perfume.

My date said, "She sure smells nice!"

I boldly asked, "How do I smell?"

His answer: "Like Lifeboy!"
