

Cupid's Folly
by Marilyn Reeves

Jack loves Jill
but Jill loves Kevin.
If only Jill would love poor Jack,
Then Jack would be in heaven!

The ones who truly love us
We cannot always choose.
There may be times we win at love,
But often times we lose.

Cupid often laughs at us
When at our hearts takes aim,
And then sits back and watches us
Play out our foolish games.

Try as we might to find the right mate,
The choice isn't ours to make.
For all of our wishing
And hoping and planning,
It's often up to fate.

So if you love Bob, but Bob loves Sue,
And Tom's the one in love with you,
Well, that's the way it goes sometimes;
But if your heart is true,
Perhaps someday you'll love someone
And he will love you too!
