

Daily Expectations

By Natalie Lawson

I was reading a little story which seemed to have no expectations. As the story continued I was looking forward to the excursion it would take me through. I realize that no matter what direction one decides to take there is always one astonishing event that rises like the sun coming up in the morning.

Our daily activities can be mundane. I live a simple life by staying with my schedule according to my calendar. It would probably be very boring to other people but for me it is a happy and contented life. When an unexpected event happens, it makes life more interesting.

If I live to be 100 years old I would still be expecting more!