

Goals

by Suzy Hopkins

If I had a “bucket list” it would include:

- making a significant change in someone’s life by teaching them to read
- going to Disneyland or Disney World every year with my grand kids
- reading every book in my condo
- riding a well trained horse again
- going whale watching
- naming a star after my grand daughter Giovanna
- living in a fancy hotel on the French Riviera
- swimming with dolphins at the aquarium
- meeting all the Obamas
- riding in a hot air balloon
- riding a horse in a cattle round-up
- blowing a glass vase
- being an extra in a movie
- eliminating junk mail for all people
- whistling with two fingers
- seeing Siberian Tigers in the wild
- learning to shoot a gun
- riding a circus elephant
- seeing my name in film credits as screenwriter
- learning Tai Chi
- most importantly I would like to have a husband who is wealthy and dead.
