

Borrowed Time

By Suzy Hopkins

Who do you borrow it from? Where do you pay it back? Can it be borrowed like money or is it just bad luck?

Money and time are often compared and associated with each other. You can spend time and money. You can save time and money. Money and time can be well spent or wasted. You can have time and also have money.

Where the comparison fails is you can get more money but your time has a definite limit. Are you living on borrowed time?
