

Where?

By Joan Mish

COYOTES! I understand that people here in Windsor Gardens see coyotes frequently. WHERE are they? I have never seen even one! I have looked around on the bike trail also. Sometimes I will see deer on the edge of the bike trail or even running across the trail. I understand that it is rare for a coyote to injure people. The worst thing you can do is to feed them. If a coyote approaches you, you should yell a loud noise, throw objects or make yourself look big.

CHAIRS! WHERE are my memory chairs? I have some memory chairs in my living room. There is a beautiful blue chair from my mom. It is definitely an antique and I did have it recovered many years ago after she died. There is also a chair from my son Tom. He gave us this chair when my husband got pretty fragile and could hardly get out of a chair. It raised him up and he could stretch his legs out to almost any height. Now I sit there and watch TV and use my computer and read my books. It is very comfortable.

CULVERS! I raised my kids in Wisconsin and we had lots of Culvers around for that is where it was started. We even had one in our small rural town. The rumor was that the gentlemen who started Culvers went to our Dodgeville School District. But eventually it was found out that one of the family members went to school in our district. My son-in-law took me to a Culvers in Denver once but it seems to be way on the other side of town and I have no way of knowing how to find it. I think we were going to an Irish Dance performance? WHERE is the Culvers in Denver?

BELLS! When moving here I decided to keep all my Christmas bells. Many of them come from various countries and good friends. I believe there is at least a dozen. But I only take them out at Christmas. In fact now days once my artificial tree died I just put up my bells from around the world. There are so many memories that I feel. WHERE do I keep them? They are right in sight in my cupboard where I put my coats.

PACKERS FANS! WHERE are they? When I wear my Packers sweatshirt I can't believe how many folks whisper to me that they really do like the Packers fans! But I haven't seen any lately.
